

Europe and its Colonial Past. Practices, Narratives, Spaces of Memory

Programme Online Seminar with the House of European History, 21 January, 3-5pm

1. Welcome and Introduction

2. Kieran Burns: General presentation on the HEH museological concepts in the permanent exhibition connected to the topic of the seminar (15 minutes)

3. Ewa Goodman: General presentation on HEH programming, audiences and learning and outreach services (15 minutes)

4. Breakdown Sessions in three groups (40 minutes)

Group 1: Kieran Burns, moderation by a student

HEH Museological concepts: objects, scenography and narrative connected to the seminar's topic

Group 2: Blandine Smilansky and Christian Url, moderation by a student

Debating History at the HEH – an overview of topics, formats and outcomes

Group 3: Ewa Goodman and Guido Gerrichhauzen, moderation by a student

Decolonizing the museum learning - practitioners' perspectives. Trends on decolonization in museum education, interpretive methods and techniques, difficult issues in contemporary history museums and concrete examples of different actions taken by museum practitioners

5. Presentation of the group discussions by the moderators of each group and final Q&A (30 minutes)